

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 140 | January 2023

In This Issue

Climate Adaptation

On Board With

Member News Library

Cover Story

Transit and Housing

The passage of AB 2097 and AB 2011 will aid the production of affordable housing in transit-oriented developments, an effort in which BART and SacRT have already excelled.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

Climate Adaptation

Record-setting winter storms add flooding to the list of climate impacts driving the need for major investment and planning to advance more resilient transit systems.

Read More

It's Time to Renew Your Membership

» Renew Today

On Board With...

Small Operators Committee Chair Kate Miller (NVTA)

Kate Miller discusses working with Caltrans to streamline critical processes for small operators, the modernization of the Vine Transit System under her lead, and her passion for cycling.

Read More

MAY 16, 2023
SPRING
LEGISLATIVE CONFERENCE

SAFE CREDIT UNION
CONVENTION CENTER
SACRAMENTO, CA

CaliforniaTransit
Association

Member News Library

Santa Cruz METRO partners to protect Monterey Bay; Pippin Dew joins WETA Board; and GILLIG battery electric bus receives highest ever Altoona score.

Read More

