

Transit Talks: New policy, organizational changes, and what's coming next

Caltrans has unveiled a bold new Director's Policy on Transit and launched a Division of Mass Transportation. This is a major step toward creating a seamless and more effective transit system in California.

APRIL 7, 2026

11:00 AM

Don't miss this chance to hear directly from leadership and help shape the future of transit in California.

Register
Here

<https://tinyurl.com/transittalkscaltrans>

Marlon Flournoy, the Caltrans Deputy Director for Planning and Modal Programs, will join us at Transit Talks to explain the new policy, organizational changes, and what's coming next. A live Q&A will answer your questions on what this means for your transit agency or organization.

CaliforniaTransit
Association

