

California Transit
Association

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 116 | December 2020

In This Issue

People's Priorities

On Board With

Member News Library

Cover Story

Holidays Still Shine

California public transit agencies are behind a number of wonderful seasonal happenings taking place around the Golden State, while continuing to adhere to COVID-19 public health restrictions.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

People's Priorities

Findings of a new study offers insights to transportation decision makers and state leaders that can help them craft SB 1 spending programs to directly target the types of transportation improvements the public wishes to see.

Read More

CLICK HERE

Latest COVID-19 Impact on Your Transit System

#SaveCATransit

On Board With...

Beverly Greene

With a long history of fighting systemic racism, AC Transit's Beverly Greene talks about her tenure in public transit, her new appointment as Chair of the California Transit Association's Inclusive, Diverse, and Equitable Association (or IDEA) Task Force, and what IDEA hopes to accomplish.

Read More

Allison
Transmissions

Change Is a Powerful Thing

Click to Learn More About Allison eGen Flex™

Member News Library

LA Metro launches Metro Micro, a new on-demand ridesharing service; MST honors Rosa Parks; VTA draws attention to human trafficking; and COMTO SoCal publishes its first quarterly publication.

Read More

