

- ▶ Reporting & Analytics
- ▶ Dispatch Software
- ▶ Passenger Information
- ▶ Digital Signs

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 106 | February 2020

In This Issue

Ridership Upturn

AC Transit Celebrates Black History Month

On Board With

Cover Story

Out With the Old

New services and the rebranding of existing lines create the opportunity for riders to own a piece of history, as agencies make vintage route signs available to collectors through community events.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

Ridership Upturn

The American Public Transportation Association reports a second consecutive quarter of rising ridership, and several California transit providers are contributing to the upward trend.

Read More

Featured Story

AC Transit Celebrates Black History Month

Two distinguished guests make the agency's black history month event meaningful and memorable.

Read More

On Board With...

Kristen Joyner

South West Transit Association's former Executive Director discusses human trafficking training and awareness for the public transportation sector.

Read More

Member News Library

Orange County Transportation Authority debuts the nation's largest hydrogen fueling station, LA Metro reports a substantial drop in system wide crime, and North County Transit District's COASTER line celebrates 25 years of service.

Read More