

California Transit
AssociationTRANSIT
CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 118 | February 2021

In This Issue

Honoring Transit Workers

On Board With

Member News Library

Cover Story

Equity Approaches & Tools

To prioritize mobility benefits to low-income communities of color, transit agencies are incorporating new equity practices into planning, policy, and decision-making.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

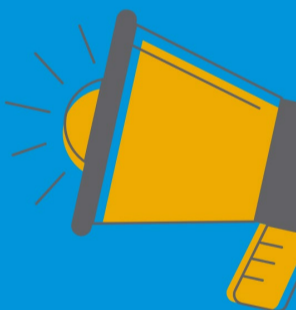

Honoring Transit Workers

The Association's Small Operators presented the 2020 Transit Professional of the Year Award to small operator frontline transit workers throughout the state. Here we look at how individual agencies celebrated at the local level.

Read More

CLICK HERE

Latest
COVID-19
Impact on Your Transit
System

#SaveCATransit

On Board With...

California Transportation
Chair Hilary Norton

In August, Hilary Norton was elected Chair of the California Transportation Commission. In this installment, Chair Norton discusses her priorities for CTC, what she hopes the Biden-Harris Administration will pursue nationally, and why the nexus of transportation, air quality, and housing are more transformative together than alone.

Read More

WELCOME TO 2021

HAVE YOU RENEWED YOUR MEMBERSHIP?

Now is the perfect time.

» Renew Today

Member News Library

OCTA transports medical workers to smaller vaccination distribution sites; Foothill Transit purchases two electric double deck buses; RTD plans for a future transit system that will address evolving demographics; LA Metro Chief Executive Officer Phillip A. Washington is stepping down in May.

Read More

CLICK HERE FOR MORE INFO

PARTNER WITH US

Year-round and event sponsorships are available to help you connect with an influential audience.