

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 12

January 2012

EXECUTIVE CORNER

What's new, you ask?

Joshua W. Shaw
Executive Director

With legislative advocacy comprising such a significant part of the services the California Transit Association provides, the beginning of a new legislative year is always a key milestone. As the calendar turns to 2012, we've been ramping up other new initiatives and laying new foundations designed to enhance the Association and what it provides in areas beyond the legislative arena.

READ MORE >

FEATURES

Then and now ...

Transit California kicks off 2012 with a look back at 2011, updating readers on subsequent developments from a few prominent stories that were featured during the first year of the magazine's electronic format.

READ MORE >

Beating a path to the Capitol

Funding is always first and foremost in the minds of the Association's advocacy team. But legislative remedies to enhance transit agencies' abilities to provide quality service are also on the radar.

READ MORE >

On board with ... Terry Bassett

The only Executive Director that Yolo County Transit District has ever known reflects on the evolution of the organization, including a number of trailblazing achievements, upcoming improvements, and a pair of recently-celebrated milestones.

READ MORE >

MEMBER NEWS LIBRARY

Santa Clara VTA nears approval on critical funds for extending BART, a North County Transit District official earns high accolades, and Sacramento Regional Transit District adds to its growing light rail network. Get details on all that and more in our Member News Library.

READ MORE >

IS YOUR TRANSIT ADVERTISING ON THE RIGHT ROAD?

REACH ONE OF THE LARGEST TRANSIT ASSOCIATIONS IN THE COUNTRY.

LEARN MORE ►