

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 105 | January 2020

In This Issue

TDA Reform Update

Equality of Access

On Board With

Cover Story

Safety First

While data confirms that public transit is among the safest modes of transportation available, many agencies have launched new security measures to both enhance safety and combat negative perceptions.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

TDA Reform Update

Formed at the request of legislative leaders to review the 1971 Transportation Development Act, the Association's TDA Reform Task Force unveils its draft concept framework for possible revisions.

Read More

Featured Story

Equality of Access

In addition to serving as an iconic focus of the civil rights movement, the Montgomery Bus Boycotts of 1955 left an everlasting impact in removing barriers to transportation equality.

Read More

On Board With...

Jill Smith

Golden Empire Transit's customer service supervisor discusses the inspiration and success of its Reading Express program, which provides books and promotes literacy for young riders.

Read More

Member News Library

San Francisco MTA launches four unique adaptive scooter pilot programs, San Diego MTS debuts service of its first battery-electric buses, and Sacramento Regional Transit expands its popular on-demand microtransit service.

Read More

