

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 123 | July 2021

In This Issue

Transit-Oriented Development

On Board With

Member News Library

Cover Story

Get Ready!

Don't miss the Association's most anticipated event of 2021. It's more vital than ever that the California Transit Association members come together this fall to experience the excellent opportunities for learning, networking, collaboration and innovation happening at the 56th Annual Fall Conference & Expo, presented by Proterra.

READ MORE >

OUR PEOPLE
Move California

Featured Story

Transit-Oriented Development

BART and Metro are prioritizing equity in regional TOD policy and projects to help address California's affordable housing crisis by linking public transit, housing, and land use.

Read More

Vaccinate ALL 58
Together we can end the pandemic.

On Board With...

Henry Li, SacRT

In this installment of On Board With transportation industry leader Henry Li candidly shares how the pandemic impacted his agency, the many recent accomplishments achieved in spite of the pandemic, and SacRT's efforts to entice riders back to their system.

Read More

Member News Library

As part of Cal-ITP, SacRT becomes the first transit agency in California to introduce a contactless payment solution on a light rail train system; due to steady ridership gains Golden Gate Ferry adds additional service; and OCTA celebrates 30 years of service.

Read More

CALIFORNIA TRANSIT ASSOCIATION'S
56TH ANNUAL FALL CONFERENCE & EXPO

EMBRACING CHANGE NEW ERA. NEW VISION.

November 2-4, 2021

SAFE Credit Union Convention Center
Sacramento

