

TRANSIT

CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 14

March 2012

EXECUTIVE CORNER

Get set for the next big event

Joshua W. Shaw
Executive Director

The calendar says it's winter. The weather in Sacramento tells me it's spring. Officially, the change of seasons is still about two weeks away, but here at the California Transit Association offices we've already mentally turned the page as we plot our next big event. Our 46th Annual Spring Legislative Conference is coming May 22-23. As opposed to previous renditions, which typically featured one day of committee meetings and a half-day of sessions, the 2012 conference will offer a full two-day agenda of the kind of information and insight that regular spring conference attendees have come to expect.

READ MORE >

Uncommon Times, Unexpected Opportunities

MAY 22 & 23, 2012
SACRAMENTO CONVENTION CENTER

FEATURES

ZEB timeline still evolving

Ongoing work by an Association Task Force and a collaboration among five Bay Area transit agencies contribute to shaping the eventual implementation of ARB's purchase requirements for zero-emission buses.

READ MORE >

Golden Gate Transit at 40

From modest beginnings in a muddy lot with a few empty warehouses to today's state-of-the-art facility, GGT has successfully provided safe, convenient, and reliable service to millions over four decades.

READ MORE >

On board with ... Jeffrey Heimberger

The Chair of the Association's Information Technology Task Force talks about the preliminary goals of the newly-formed group, collaboration among members, and the universal application of technological advancements across all aspects of transit agency business.

READ MORE >

MEMBER NEWS LIBRARY

Dignitaries abound at SunLine Transit Agency's State of Public Transit Luncheon, WestCAT test drives a new advertising policy, and the San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency launches a celebration of its history through a unique partnership. Get details on all that and more in our Member News Library.

READ MORE >