

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 35 | March 2014

In This Issue

Federal Presence

Art and Transit

On Board With

Cover Story

Federal Presence

A series of "highly successful" briefings characterizes the Association's first-ever Federal Lobby Day, as California transit leaders state their case before decisionmakers in Washington, D.C.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

Private Fix Problematic

The deployment of private shuttle buses by tech giants like Google and Facebook has prompted protests and raised debate over whether they constitute "a private solution to a public problem."

Read More >

Investing in Tomorrow

48TH ANNUAL SPRING LEGISLATIVE CONFERENCE

May 28, 2014
Sacramento Convention Center

Featured Story

Art and Transit

Several transit entities have taken the marriage of art and public spaces to a whole new level, including tours of installations at transit hubs and hosting temporary exhibits within their facilities.

Read More >

Buyers' Guide

From air brakes to ZEBs, our Business Members have what you need. >

On Board With...

Donna DeMartino

The Association's new Chair discusses raising the organization's visibility at the national level, the importance of member participation in advocacy efforts, and the next crop of transit leaders.

Read More >

Member News Library

Monterey-Salinas Transit identifies support for a transit sales tax initiative, the Santa Clara Valley Transportation Authority steps up its marketing to Millennials, AC Transit celebrates Transit Driver Appreciation Day, and Omnitrans removes the "Interim" label from its CEO/General Manager's title.

Read what your colleagues are doing in our Member News Library >

