

- ▶ Reporting & Analytics
- ▶ Dispatch Software
- ▶ Passenger Information
- ▶ Digital Signs

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 95 | March 2019

In This Issue

TDA Revisited

Are You ZEB Ready?

On Board With

Cover Story

Seeking Refuge

For many homeless individuals, public transit is a refuge and an invaluable resource. While transit agencies have no official role in addressing homelessness, many are becoming actively involved responders.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

TDA Revisited

The brainchild of former Senate President pro Tempore Jim Mills, the Transportation Development Act of 1971 is undergoing a thorough review by a newly-formed Association task force.

Read More

Choose your level of electrification

From electric accessories to zero-emission propulsion hybridrive.com

BAE SYSTEMS

Featured Story

Are You ZEB Ready?

In response to the new Innovative Clean Transit regulation, the Southern California Regional Transit Training Consortium expands its focus on zero-emission maintenance training.

Read More

INNOVATIVE ELECTRIC TRANSPORTATION

BYD

TRANSFORM YOUR CITY FUEL THE FUTURE

On Board With...

Rick Ramacier

The Chair of the Association's State Legislative Committee discusses the committee's mission, high-priority policy goals identified for 2019, and an upcoming opportunity to learn more.

Read More

California Transit Association

2019 SPRING LEGISLATIVE CONFERENCE

May 22, 2019
Citizen Hotel
Sacramento

Member News Library

Long Beach Transit launches year-round water taxi service, the San Diego Metropolitan Transit System bucks recent ridership trends, and the San Mateo County Transit District offers new assistance to senior and mobility-challenged riders.

Read More

