

- CAD-AVL
- Passenger Information
- Annunciator
- Passenger Counting

One System

CaliforniaTransit Association

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 42 | October 2014

In This Issue

That's a Wrap

Catch the Wind

On Board With

Cover Story

It's Almost Here!

Transit leaders from across the nation are getting set to gather in Monterey for the California Transit Association's 49th Annual Fall Conference & Expo. See why you should be there too.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

That's a Wrap

The institution of a new source of state transit funding through Cap and Trade highlights a year of legislative achievements in which four Association-sponsored bills are signed into law.

Read More

Valley
POWER SYSTEMS

Your single-source emissions and power solutions provider.

ONE STOP...Factory Authorized Sales, Parts & Service

Serving the transit industry for over 65 years!

(800) 924-4265

Visit us at www.ValleyPowerSystems.com

Featured Story

Catch the Wind

An innovative pilot program by L.A. Metro concludes that the airflow in underground tunnels from passing subway trains can be harnessed to create a renewable energy source.

Read More

On Board With...

Lauren Skiver

SunLine Transit Agency's new General Manager discusses how perceptions of transit differ from coast to coast, and what's in store for transit service in the Coachella Valley.

Read More

Member News Library

"Friends Ride Free Fridays" are a hit with Omnitrans' sbX BRT riders, Capitol Corridor logs its highest customer satisfaction rating in years, and the Antelope Valley Transit Authority earns high honors for its clean air efforts.

Read More

Connect with us

Buyers' Guide

From air brakes to ZEBs, our Business Members have what you need. >

California Transit Association's 49th Annual Fall Conference & Expo
Monterey Marriott & Monterey Conference Center
November 12-14, 2014

CHANGING TIDES
TRANSIT TODAY. TRANSIT TOMORROW.

