

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 90 | October 2018

In This Issue

Pairing TNCs and Paratransit

Reimagining Rail

On Board With

Cover Story

Transformative Event

A record number of attendees gather in Long Beach for the Association's 53rd Annual Fall Conference & Expo to learn the latest about the mega-trends that are reshaping public and private transportation.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

Pairing TNCs & Paratransit

Tri Delta Transit's partnership with Uber, Lyft, and local taxi services helps relieve the strain on its paratransit service, while easing the burden on vehicle demand and lowering the cost per passenger trip.

Read More

Choose your level of electrification

From electric accessories to zero-emission propulsion

hybriddrive.com

BAE SYSTEMS

Featured Story

Reimagining Rail

Implementation of new safety measures is just one key step in Metrolink's plan to provide more frequent, reliable, and faster passenger rail service throughout Southern California.

Read More

INNOVATIVE ELECTRIC TRANSPORTATION

BYD

TRANSFORM YOUR CITY FUEL THE FUTURE

On Board With...

Sharon Greene

The newest member of the Association's Executive Committee discusses her ongoing work to assist transit agencies with financial models, funding strategies, and grant management.

Read More

BALLARD

Zero emission mobility without compromise

Powered by hydrogen fuel cell - zero emission

Ballard FCveloCity® fuel cell power modules improve performance of transit buses with longer range and fast refueling.

www.ballard.com zeroemissionbus.org

Member News Library

Antelope Valley Transit Authority proceeds with plans for new commuter routes, scooters hit the streets as part of San Francisco MTA's new pilot program, and Monterey-Salinas Transit is lauded for its service to rural communities.

Read More