

- ▶ Reporting & Analytics
- ▶ Dispatch Software
- ▶ Passenger Information
- ▶ Digital Signs

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 102 | October 2019

In This Issue

Power Outage Plan

On Board With

Member News Library

Cover Story

Where the Riders Are

Launched this month, YoloBus' new YOUR Ride on-demand service targets a single community to improve mobility options for youth, low-income, and other transit-dependent rural populations.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

Power Outage Plan

After many months of advance preparation, BART's strategy for dealing with PG&E's Public Safety Power Shutoffs was put to the test this month – and the trains kept running.

Read More

On Board With...

Donna DeMartino

The Chair of the Association's Labor Task Force discusses the group's work to share best practices and guidance for members in addressing a wide variety of labor-related issues.

Read More

Member News Library

New funding flows for Santa Clara VTA's BART Silicon Valley project, Free Ride Day spurs 100,000 trips in San Diego County, and San Francisco MTA marks 55 years since its iconic cable cars were designated as a national landmark.

Read More

