

Modern tech for

Dispatch
Passenger Information

Free Wi-Fi

gmv SYNCROMATICS
gmvsync.com

CaliforniaTransit
Association

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 114 | October 2020

In This Issue

Building Confidence

On Board With

Member News Library

Cover Story

Racial Justice Movement

The California Transit Association brings racial justice to the forefront with a recent webinar and a series of sessions at its upcoming fall conference.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

Building Confidence

Rider engagement activities and programs help systems understand how the pandemic has changed rider's perceptions and identify strategies to regain and rebuild confidence in riding public transit.

Read More

CLICK HERE

Latest COVID-19 Impact on Your Transit System

#SaveCATransit

On Board With...

Nanette Diaz Barragán

In this special interview, Nanette Diaz Barragán, who represents California's 44th District in the U.S. House of Representatives, discusses the importance of zero emission technology, the priorities of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus, the critical role transportation plays in California communities to help ensure economic inclusion, and the value of voting.

Read More

Change Is a Powerful Thing
Click to Learn More About Allison eGen Flex™

Member News Library

California transit agencies offer "Free Ride Day" during early voting and Election Day to help ensure all voices are heard, VTA adopts a net 15 payment plan for small business prime contractors, and the late Paul Jablonski is inducted into APTA's Hall of Fame.

Read More

Committed to protecting our passengers and team members.

transdev
the mobility company

Connect with us   