

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 126 | October 2021

In This Issue

Celebrando Nuestras Culturas

On Board With

Member News Library

Cover Story

Lifting the Latinx Community

Latinos In Transit, which works to advance Latinx and other minorities into executive positions and roles of influence, takes pride in National Hispanic Heritage Month, sharing in the celebrations of public transit agencies and encouraging best practices specific to Latinx populations and communities.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

Celebrando Nuestras Culturas

Recently the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District (AC Transit) held an event to celebrate and observe National Hispanic Heritage Month. This year's virtual event highlighted the richly diverse cultures of the Latinx diaspora.

Read More

CALIFORNIA BUILT, TRANSIT PROVEN

Lee Petersen
(510) 867-5108
lee.petersen@gillig.com

Sean Solis
(510) 512-2638
sean.solis@gillig.com

GILLIG
www.GILLIG.com

On Board With...

Senator Maria Elena Durazo

From migrant worker to State Senator, Maria Elena Durazo brings firsthand experience to Sacramento. In this special interview, the Senator talks about her background, why she is passionate about empowering and organizing people, and how public transit fits within her lens of essential workers.

Read More

Allison's Revolutionary eGen Flex™ Electric Hybrid

Allison Transmission
Electrify Your Fleet »

Member News Library

L.A. Unified School District and L.A. Metro partner to provide TK-12 students unlimited rides; BART Board approves COVID-19 vaccine mandate; a new advocacy coalition is formed to raise awareness of California's growing intercity passenger rail system; and after 33 years Larry Rubio announces his retirement from the Riverside Transit Agency.

Read More

LFS^{e+}

Lighting the future of public transportation

Come meet the Nova Bus team during the California Transit Association 56th Annual Fall Conference and Expo

novabus.com

NOVABUS
bring life to your city

