

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 41 | September 2014

In This Issue    SoCal Summit    Another Test Passed    On Board With

Cover Story

Off the Rails

During Rail Safety Month, transit agencies around the state are conducting campaigns reminding people to stay alert when near train tracks – and of the potential consequences if they don't.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

SoCal Summit

Mobility 21 brings together more than 1,000 transportation, business and elected leaders to address the challenges and opportunities facing Southern California's transportation infrastructure.

Read More

Your single-source emissions and power solutions provider.

ONE STOP...Factory Authorized Sales, Parts & Service

Serving the transit industry for over 65 years!
(800) 924-4265
Visit us at www.ValleyPowerSystems.com

Featured Story

Another Test Passed

Antelope Valley Transit Authority's electric bus demonstration project passes a major milestone with a 24-hour marathon ride in which the vehicle covered 746 miles in three re-charged shifts.

Read More

Buyers' Guide

From air brakes to ZEBs, our Business Members have what you need. >

California Transit Association's 49th Annual Fall Conference & Expo
Monterey Marriott & Monterey Conference Center
November 12-14, 2014

CHANGING TIDES

TRANSIT TODAY. TRANSIT TOMORROW.

On Board With...

Operation Lifesaver

Officials and volunteers with the rail safety education organization discuss partnerships with local agencies, their model for consistent messaging and their latest campaign.

Read More

Member News Library

BART offers free rides for school field trips and the program proves to be popular beyond all expectations, San Diego MTS shatters its all-time one-year ridership record, and Santa Clara VTA orchestrates a unique observance of September 11.

Read More

