

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 84 | April 2018

In This Issue

Uber, Lyft, and Bike-Share

SPRINTER Anniversary

On Board With

Cover Story

Defending Our Future

Last year, a celebratory mood permeated the Association's Spring Legislative Conference following the adoption of Senate Bill 1. At this year's event, the landmark funding measure is again in the spotlight, but for decidedly different reasons.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

Uber, Lyft, and Bike-Share

The rideshare service rivals look to expand on a new frontier, launching two among many pilot programs utilizing technology-driven innovation to increase mobility options.

Read More

Featured Story

SPRINTER Anniversary

Over its first decade of service, the hybrid rail system has become the backbone of east/west transit in North San Diego County and an engine of regional economic development.

Read More

On Board With...

Kenneth McDonald

With a diverse array of services across 13 cities, Long Beach Transit's President/CEO reflects on his agency's achievements and upcoming priorities for a dynamic and growing region.

Read More

Member News Library

Fresno County Rural Transit rides the battery-electric wave, San Luis Obispo Transit celebrates a pair of prestigious awards, and Sacramento Regional Transit unveils light rail trains wrapped in the work of four local artists.

Read More