

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 81 | January 2018

In This Issue

Electrified Caltrain

Meet the Team

On Board With

Cover Story

Creative Recruiting

The vital need to hire, train and put into place succession planning has never been greater, as public transit agencies across California are experiencing needs for every level of worker.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

Electrified Caltrain

More than 25 years in the planning, Caltrain's Peninsula Corridor Electrification Project is on the way to transforming the transit landscape for San Francisco Bay Area commuters.

Read More

Featured Story

Meet the Team

The California Transit Association staff is ready, willing, able and eager to address the needs of Association members. Got questions? Learn more about who's here to help answer them.

Read More

On Board With...

Doran Barnes

Foothill Transit's Executive Director and the former Chair of the California Transit Association reflects on his just-completed term leading the American Public Transportation Association.

Read More

Member News Library

Riverside Transit Agency announces express service to Disneyland, Access Services launches an autonomous vehicle pilot project, and Monterey-Salinas Transit has big plans for funding made available by Senate Bill 1.

Read More