

TRANSIT CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 65 | September 2016

In This Issue

Ahead of Schedule

Cap and Trade Quandary

On Board With

Cover Story

Face-to-Face Time

Irreplaceable networking and educational opportunities await attendees at the California Transit Association's 51st Fall Conference & Expo, taking place November 16-18 in Oakland.

READ MORE >

Featured Story

Ahead of Schedule

U.S. Transportation Secretary Anthony Foxx visits the Bay Area for a first-hand look at Santa Clara VTA's rapidly progressing, under budget BART Silicon Valley extension project.

Read More

November 16-18, 2016
Oakland Marriott City Center
and Oakland Convention Center

Featured Story

Cap and Trade Quandary

Governor Brown signs a measure extending the state's GHG emission reduction goals, but efforts to continue the Cap and Trade program beyond 2020 remain in limbo.

Read More

Selecting the best transit software provider can be a major decision.

Download Ecolane's latest eBook outlining factors to consider, including questions to be asked.

DOWNLOAD NOW

On Board With...

John Boesel

The President and CEO of CALSTART discusses "Race to Zero," a competition with China to see which of the two countries has the highest percentage of emission free buses by 2025.

Read More

Buyers' Guide

From air brakes to ZEBs, our Business Members have what you need. >

Member News Library

BART tests a program that rewards riders for helping ease the commute crush, San Diego MTS installs the first of 600 new bus shelters, and a new study shows that park-and-ride lots help increase bus transit efficiency.

Read More

ACT NOW

Show your support for increased public transit funding.

Keep California Moving

Support the Association and Reach its Members

From print to online advertising, the California Transit Association provides numerous opportunities to reach key decision-makers. For more information, contact Alex Hammond, Publication Director at Naylor: (352) 333-6034 or ahammond@naylor.com.